

British Skibike Team – Press Release 2007

Silver Medals for Great Britain at the World Championships!

The British Skibike Racing Team win two Silver Medals at the Senior World Championships in Berg im Drautal, Austria and the young British athletes show excellent promise at the Elite Championships in Aigen Hochficht, Austria. In total there were 148 competitors from 16 nations.

Richard Platt's results in the Slalom and again in the Combination (Super G, GS and SL) saw the first silver medals for Britain in nearly 30 years! This years Team of 5 amateur skibike racers was also highlighted by the stunning performances of a couple of the younger members of the team: India Muirhead, just 17 years old, taking 8th place overall in the Junior Girls' class and Nic Platt winning the 'B' Nations' (non-alpine) Trophy and finishing 15th overall amongst the Elite Men's Class.
